COMMUNIST

ETA announces:

Soviet Functionary met with ETA members in the Estonian apartment block at 6. Donville Lane, Toronto, on the evening of Monday Sept. 26 until the early morning of Tuesday Sept. 27.

A secret meeting has taken place at an hour of 11.30 PM and in the Estonian apartment block at 6. Donville Lane, Toronto, on the evening of Monday Sept. 26 until the early morning of Tuesday Sept. 27. Mr. Rizme is a member of the Estonian Central Council Executive, chairman of its Cultural Committee, and the director of the Cultural Archives. The purpose of the secret meeting was to meet with Rudolf Sirje, a noted red writer from Soviet Moscow, who has also been a member of the Destruction Battalion and who has in Toronto during the weekend as a member of the eleven men Cultural Delegation from the Soviet Union.

Present at the meeting were writer Salme Elbaum, critic and poet Johannes Oja, writer Magda Pihla and the editor of the journal "Vabu Eesti" (Free Estonia), Ivo Naelapea, and also others.

The Estonian newspapers and our National Political Battle Organisation (Estonian Central Council) were not informed of this meeting. Thereby our important organs had been ignored and "the people arranging the meeting" have acted on their own without any sense of responsibility. Later, upon sobering, have these people become frightened and are now giving any information about the meeting. They have also tried to do everything possible for the purpose of preventing the spread of the truth among their compatriots.

On the twentieth anniversary of our exile, has the "intelligence" among the Toronto Estonians rushed with open arms to receive the communist functionary and thereby taken steps which break up the unity and political thinking among our exiled group. This action will directly be of damage to our fight for political freedom.

As about the same time our war hero, Colonel A. K. and his wife, the Estonians in Toronto. His speech showed us clear classification and reminded us of the promises made while we were meeting Tserenbaa. Our battle organisations have until now done their best to explain and to oppose the compounding sound of the two church bells. Had they succeeded this joint battle front collapsed.

Since there are reasons to believe that the essential documents which should belong to the public will be suppressed by those who organized the meeting, this present Bulletin considers it its duty to set down briefly what has happened.

On Sunday Sept. 20th, R.Sirje was in touch with Anna Kurn, who informed her that he had greetings and a parcel to give her for Anna Nurm in Estonia, and expressed also his desire to meet with some literary people in Terendo for the purpose of exchanging thoughts with them and to give necessary information. Following their suitable conferences were made and a meeting was arranged for Monday night. On Aug. 29th Bertse, drove R.Sirje from the "King Edward" hotel to his apartment where the invited group was already waiting. Detailed information regarding what was discussed there and what information was passed is not available. However, it is known that he was not until just before daybreak on Tuesday when the group left and Mr. Sirje was driven back to his hotel.

We consider it our duty to present several information taken from Soviet Estonian sources regarding those who will carry the authorities' functions in Estonia.

R. Sirje, born: 1904 in Terendo. Beginning 1910 a so called leader of new life. Secretary of the Writers' Association of the Estonian Socialist Republic. Received the Order "Order of Friendship" for his services to the population.

Maria Nurme, born: 1917 in the province of Viljandis. Went to the Soviet Union early beginning of the war, with her husband, Andri Nurme. Since 1944, member of the USSR, Authors' Union.

"One communist takeover. The person who "leads" is Karpov's literature under communism. Editor of "Communist and Anti-Imperialist". Awarded with Orders for services as an author of propaganda. Member of the ESSR Presidium.

Members of the "Organization for Developing Cultural Ties with Countries in Exile" and "The Society for Developing Cultural Ties and Friendship with Foreign Countries", in Tallinn, have spared very hard work in order to reach their objectives. They publish the propaganda journal "Homeland". This hero was the first attempt to make contacts with Estonians in Canada and to break the resistance of the Estonians in exile.
